Pray Like Jesus

“Pay for Book-ie” I heard yesterday afternoon as Peter looked at my phone and caught a picture of his almost one year old cousin, Brooke. We stopped to say God bless Brooke, and pray an ear infection was gone. I smiled as we did hoping that we are instilling in our children a natural connection between thinking of others and praying for them. I wonder if you do the same things in your home. We pray when we hear sirens (fire engine, police, ambulance, or others) with blessings for both those rushing towards the emergency and those affected by it. We pray when we see a beautiful sunset, as well as a cool worm on the driveway. We pray before meals, as well as when we are worried. But, like so many who have gone before, we pray most regularly and dependably at bedtime.

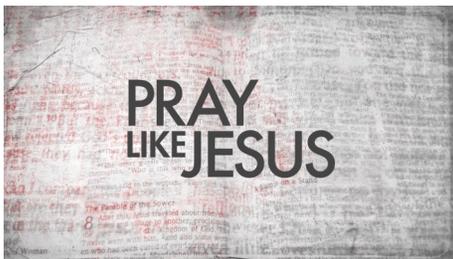

I love our bedtime prayers that Steve began on the first day Alisabeth was born, even though I was still recovering from the work of birth. Intentionally, we marry the best of customs from multiple traditions to form our familial tradition for ‘night-night prayers.’ We begin with the Lord’s Prayer together, and then we pray through a list of family of close friends with God Blesses (as in ‘God Bless Mommy and Daddy, Alisabeth, Felicity, and Peter, and so on.). We close our prayer time with the question of what else would you like to pray for? Theologically, we mix prayers of scripture (Lord’s prayer), tradition (God Blesses) with reason and experience (prayers for those you are thinking of, as well as questions). It is just as likely that we are praying for an individual whom we know, as well as those without homes or those who are tired.

Traditionally, the Church has tended to embrace one part or another of Jesus’ way of praying. Our Roman Catholic and Orthodox brothers and sisters have tended towards prayers from tradition. Our Protestant brothers and sisters have tended towards prayers from their own experience. Both traditions are missing something if they only pray in one tradition or the other. We look towards Jesus for how Jesus prayed.

Jesus prayed everywhere and anywhere. He did not hesitate to address God when others were present (Matthew 19:13) or withdraw to a private place for the solitude of listening to God (Luke 5:16). There were no prescriptions only praying with the presence of others or only praying in private. We continue to learn that our God is not an ‘either-or’ God, but rather a ‘both-and’ God.

Jesus used scripture as a cornerstone for prayer (Luke 4: 1-11). When Jesus was tempted by the devil, it was the scriptures that he learned as a child and young man that gave him the strength and the fodder to resist. Memorized scripture meant prayers of biblical ancestors were his to use. We often imagine that our prayers need to be completely composed of our own original thoughts and inspirations. There is nothing less ingenious about leaning on the inspired words of others to express our thoughts and feelings.

Jesus set scripture in his prayers (Matthew 26: 39). When Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane, he both prayed for his own specific circumstance of the pain approaching a painful death as well as gave us an example for approaching the painful. “Thy Will be Done” is at once an acknowledgement of God’s wisdom and sovereignty and of our acquiescence to it. We do not need to wish for the struggles and the challenges in order to be able to walk through the path where we find ourselves. Jesus provided this prayer as an accompaniment to lean on in those times.

This Lent, pray like Jesus. Pray by yourself and with others. Pray with scripture. Pray your own words. Most importantly, Pray.

In God’s Love,
Pastor Monica

WHAT IS GSR?

Give | Serve | Restore is an annual project that gathers churches of Southern Chester County to bring hope and healing to our community during the season of Lent.

WHY DO GIVE | SERVE | RESTORE?

The goal of Give | Serve | Restore (GSR) is for people to work together to bless our community!

West Grove UMC is again participating in GSR this year as follows:

1 Service / Good Works

The wall in the lobby is set up for everyone to be encouraged to do small or large acts of kindness and service to others during Lent. Please fill-out a post it note with your kind gestures noted and place on the wall.

2 Pounds of Food

We encourage all to bring in 2 pounds of non-perishable food to help stock our Emergency Food Cupboard. We have a goal of collecting 200 pounds. You can watch our progress on the goal board in the lobby.

$3 (Kids) / $30 (Adults)

We encourage you to use that $30 to help our community thrive! This year, donations will benefit Casa Youth Advocates -a local non-profit organization working for the restoration of our community. Casa Youth Advocates believes that every child needs an advocate. They aim to speak for the best interests of abused and neglected children who are involved in the family courts, and do so by mobilizing and supporting quality volunteers to serve as advocates for the children they serve. Casa serves Delaware County and is expanding their service into Chester County. Please note on your gift that it is for GSR.

Memory Bells Expansion

The Memory Bells are excited to let you all know that we are expanding to four octaves. We began the transition process this month and we could use one more permanent player. We have rehearsals every Monday night at 6:30 and play in church the third Sunday of every month during the traditional service from September to June. We'll also be playing at Twin Pines at the end of April, and in the annual community concert the first weekend in May. As you can tell, it's a big commitment, but we have a sub list available, and if you can't attend a rehearsal or ring during church or in one of our events, you would be expected to find a substitute.

We have added three large bells (G, A, and B) and four small bells (D, E, F, and G) along with their accidentals, as well as the corresponding chimes. We have had to add some other equipment, including two new folding tables, foam table pads, and mallets. We thank Fred Sullivan for making two more music stands. We really appreciate all the help he has given the bell choir, as he also designed and made the music stands we have used since the choir began.

If you're interested in ringing bells, either as a permanent member or a sub, could you please let me know -- either in church or by phone. Home phone is 484-887-0003; cell phone is 610-563-9500.

Many thanks!

Sandy Deckard, Memory Bells Director

NEW BIBLE STUDY -

“DARING ABUNDANTLY”

STARTING SUNDAY, APRIL 23RD AND SATURDAY, MAY 6TH

We are told by the Bible that adversity brings with it great blessings. The book Daring Greatly, by Brené Brown, explains to us how we can use our emotional vulnerability to “lean into discomfort” and begin to understand the tensions which sometimes occur between ourselves and others –often based on shame, guilt, or blame, which often cause us to be afraid to live a wholehearted life. Brené encourages us to “show up, and be seen”.

With proper practice, we can build the courage to live fuller lives in connected -ness with others. Jesus taught us how to experience love, compassion, and belonging which can occur when we can be our authentic, unique selves. This can only be found when we are able to be vulnerable, resilient, and compassionate toward others.

We will be reading and exploring this in a 6 week Sunday School Class beginning April 23rd at 9:45 a.m. and Saturday mornings beginning on May 6th at 9:00 a.m.

Please join us. Inquire or sign up at the table in the Narthex after services, or Call Peter Mullen at 610-299-8899.

Take a look at a Youtube of Brené: <https://youtu.be/qQiFfa7KfF0>

Pastor Monica challenged us to read the Bible in a year.

If you have taken this challenge, you have already read almost 1/6 of the Bible – GREAT JOB! You have read some heart-warming stories and some familiar passages, as well as some usual passages and things you had no idea were in the Bible.

Some people reading through the Bible would like to get together and discuss.

We are considering getting together on Tuesday or Thursday evening. Let us know what would work for you.

Questions? Comments? Please see Karen Hruz or Pastor Monica for more information.

CMO PRESCHOOL

The children had a busy February filled with lots of lessons about love and kindness. Each class celebrated Valentine's Day with a special snack and lots of conversations about how we can show love to our family and friends. We also were lucky enough to once again have a visit from Dr. Gregory, a local dentist. He always does a great job teaching the children about the importance of keeping their teeth clean. The highlight of his visit though is his bear friend who comes along. This huge stuffed bear has teeth that the children can brush for practice.

This winter, we offered a music enrichment class as we have done in previous years. It is a joy to see the children enjoy this music time with Linda Bunting. Linda does a wonderful job of teaching the children about music and instruments while keeping the lessons age appropriate. Each week, she brought in a different and unusual instrument for the children to try along with her guitar.

Preschool registration began the beginning of February and is on going. If you or someone you know is looking for a preschool, please reach out to me. I would love to tell you more about our program.

Our Consignment Sale is quickly approaching. The sale will be Friday, March 17th and Saturday, March 18th. I hope you will come out to shop and/or consign.

Thank you for supporting our CMO and Preschool program.

As Pastor Jim and Betty are traveling, short update:

This world cruise did not start out on the right foot. A day before we left, Jan. 19th, we received notice that because of three weather systems in the Pacific Ocean which would affect Los Angeles, the ship would not sail on Friday, Jan. 20th but would stay in port and leave early Sunday morning, Jan. 22nd. Because of these storms in the Pacific, Princess changed our itinerary. We would now head Southwest and cancel our ports of call to Hawaii, American Samoa (Pago Pago) and Tonga, replacing them with Bora Bora and Tahiti. Betty and I were okay.

On Sunday Jan. 22nd, the day we left LA I had the privilege of conducting the Interdenominational Church Service. With rough seas and a service time of 8:30 AM, I didn't expect many to attend, but there were 65 people present. Since we were at sea the next week, the 29th, I had them make 75 bulletins for the service and again we ran out with an estimated 85 in worship. I showed a Christian film called "WAR ROOM" which I broke into four 30 minutes segments as our gathering time is 50 minutes. I'm offering another study which I designed a powerpoint program called "The Majesty of God in the Old Testament". More updates next month!

Classes starting.

Retired Active People

Retired Active People (R.A.P.) FRIDAY, 12:00 Noon-3:00 p.m.

Thank you Linda Peirson for bringing us a very interesting program and overview of Delaware Light Houses. Everyone enjoyed Linda's informative presentation. Don't miss out on wonderful programs presented each month at RAP. Join us for our next gathering on March 10th at noon for an afternoon of good friends and fellowship.

Bring your bagged lunch; desserts and beverages are provided; and enjoy a trip down the Nile presented by Jeanette Stryjewski. During the trip we will be stopping off at a few ancient sites. At each of the "stops" we will learn about the famous people who lived there and why Jeanette thinks they were fun. She says, "consider it like "People" magazine for Ancient Egypt." Jeanette has taught history from the point of view that we should enjoy it, not suffer through it. So, she adds, "if there were characters who were like rock stars or whom the paparazzi would want to photograph, that's my kind of presentation!" Invite your friends and join us for a wonderful afternoon!

We are still looking for a couple more folks to join the team for future programming, so plans for next year's programs may be finalized. RAP is still in need of a leader. If you feel led to lead this group and/or are interested in helping plan the meetings, events, and programs for the 2017-2018 year and to help plan our 20th Anniversary RAP celebration, look for the sign-up sheet at our next meeting. Many thanks to all who gather each month to enjoy this time together and to those who help make the afternoon enjoyable.

Addiction and Recovery Information for Individuals, Families and Professionals

I Want to Change My Life Network

These are some of the common opioids and their generic names. They are listed in order of increasing strength.

Codeine, Vicodin, Hycodan (hydrocodone), MS Contin Kadian (morphine), Oxycontin, Percoset (oxycodone) Dilaudid (hydromorphone), Duragesic (fentanyl)

What are Opioids?

Opioids are a group of drugs that are used for treating pain. They are derived from opium which comes from the poppy plant. Opioids go by a variety of names including opiates, opioids, and narcotics. The term opiates is sometimes used for close relatives of opium such as codeine, morphine and heroin, while the term opioids is used for the entire class of drugs including synthetic opiates such as Oxycontin.

Opioids Addiction

Opioids produce a sense of wellbeing or euphoria that can be addictive to some people. Opioids are legitimately used for treating pain. When used for pain relief, many people develop tolerance, meaning they need more and more to get the same effect. Some people go on to develop an addiction to opioids. They begin to obsessively think about getting more opiates and in some cases engage in illegal activities such as double doctoring.

A high dose of opioids can cause death from cardiac or respiratory arrest. Tolerance to the euphoric effect of opioids develops faster than tolerance to the dangerous effects. Therefore people often overdose by mistake because they are trying to get a higher high and take too much.

Opioid overdose can be reversed in hospital with intravenous naltrexone. Please contact emergency services if you feel you are in danger of an overdose.

Opioid Withdrawal

Opioid withdrawal can be extremely uncomfortable. The important thing to remember is that opioid withdrawal is not life threatening if you are withdrawing only from opioids and not a combination of drugs. (Withdrawal from alcohol and some drugs such as benzodiazepines is potentially dangerous)

Opioid withdrawal symptoms include:

Low energy, Irritability, Anxiety, Agitation, Insomnia, Runny nose, Teary eyes, Hot and cold sweats, Goose bumps, Yawning, Muscle aches and pains, Abdominal cramping, Nausea, Vomiting, Diarrhea.

Opioid withdrawal symptoms can last anywhere from one week to one month. Especially the emotional symptoms such as low energy, anxiety and insomnia can last for a few months after stopping high doses of opioids.

Once the early stage withdrawal symptoms are over, you will still experience post-acute withdrawal symptoms. These are less severe but last longer.

Do You Have an Opioid Addiction?

Has your use of opioids increased over time? Do you experience withdrawal symptoms when you stop using? Do you use more than you would like, or more than is prescribed? Have you experienced negative consequences to your using? Have you put off doing things because of your drug use? Do you find yourself thinking obsessively about getting or using your drug? Have you made unsuccessful attempts at cutting down your drug use?

If you answered yes to at least three of those questions, then you are addicted to opioids.

A Recovery Plan

Break the cycle of guilt and shame. Do your recovery with other people who are going through the same thing. This is the benefit of going to 12-step meetings such as Narcotics Anonymous NA or Alcoholics Anonymous AA. (More resources.)

Ask for help. Have a strong support system. Be honest, and practice sharing how you feel. Avoid high risk situations. Learn relapse prevention strategies. Do your recovery one day at a time.

Medications Used to Treat Opioid Addiction

Suboxone, Subutex (buprenorphine), Revia (naltrexone), Methadone

House Blessings

“And now, O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are true, and you have promised this good thing to your servant; now therefore may it please you to bless the house of your servant, so that it may continue forever before you; for you, O Lord GOD, have spoken, and with your blessing shall the house of your servant be blessed forever.” 2 Samuel 7: 28-29

From biblical times, when someone moved into a new dwelling, words of blessing were offered over the new home. Home blessings involve prayers, scripture reading, and movement throughout the house.

If you are interested in a home blessing, please contact Pastor Monica.

UMCOR – Mission Central
