November

"As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving."

Colossians 2: 6-7

Dear Grandma, thank you for the sweater. I will wear it in the cold. Love, Your Grandchild.

I wonder if you ever had to write notes like that after receiving gifts. Even if you did not like the sweater or socks, you HAD to write the note. For some of us, it has been drilled into that thank you notes are as much about manners as they are about gratitude. When a gift is given, many were taught, a note is written to thank the giver.

Like so many of the traditions passed onto us from generations before, science is beginning to back up the best practices and habits of our ancestors. Two psychologists, Dr. Robert A. Emmons of the University of California, Davis, and Dr. Michael E. McCullough of the University of Miami, created a study on gratitude and health. The crux of the study that began in 2002 and has expanded since then is that they asked all participants to write a few sentences each week, focusing on particular topics. One group wrote about things they were grateful for that had occurred during the week. A second group wrote about daily irritations or things that had displeased them, and the third wrote about events that had affected them (with no emphasis on them being positive or negative). After 10 weeks, those who wrote about gratitude were more optimistic and felt better about their lives. Surprisingly, they also exercised more and had fewer visits to physicians than those who focused on sources of aggravation.<sup>1</sup>

This is more than a good health or social practice; it is also at the very heart of our faith. According to Mark T. Mitchell, professor of political science at Patrick Henry College in Virginia: "Gratitude is born of humility, for it acknowledges the giftedness of the creation and the benevolence of the Creator. This recognition gives birth to acts marked by attention and responsibility. Ingratitude, on the other hand, is marked by hubris, which denies the gift, and this always leads to inattention, irresponsibility, and abuse."<sup>2</sup> Our faith is rooted in gratitude to God for the gift of Jesus, which we can never repay. We seek to live lives that reflect the glory of who God is and how Jesus lived. It is almost as if our lives are long thank you notes to God.

For the thirty days of November, I challenge you to write a thank you to someone different every day! Yes, I am challenging you to write the note. The act of writing changes our experience as the one thanking as well as deepens the experience of the receiver. While spoken thank yous are important, they tend not to be as long held or deeply offered. Yes, I am challenging you to write to someone different every day. From your family to your friends, from co-workers to neighbors, from the pharmacist to our troops serving here and around the world, from teachers to doctors, from government officials to bus drivers, they are many people for whom you can give thanks to God.

And don't forget to offer gratitude to God for who God is and what God has done and will do! I am writing thank you notes alongside of you. I am giving thanks to God for each of you, today. Maybe you'll even find a thank you note!

In God's Love, Pastor Monica

Teaching our Children about Tithing

Teaching children to tithe is an important part of their faith education that we often overlook. Giving to God is a core value of our faith that should be taught early and reinforced often. The most common way that I see tithing taught to children is simply by grownups giving children a quarter to put in the offering plate. This is all right for very young children because it gives them an opportunity to participate. But this may not send the right message to elementary school children.

First, the money wasn't theirs to begin with, so they do not feel the satisfaction of it being a personal gift to God.

Second, it does not teach proportionality in giving or the idea of putting God first in our finances. We want to teach children to be intentional about their giving. But our adult understanding of tithing can be too complex for children. For example, children are not generally taught to figure percentages until their middle-elementary-school years. So teaching younger children to calculate a percentage tithe is not age appropriate.

When our son was five, we started to teach him about giving using "money jars." We have three jars sitting on his dresser that are labeled "Money for God," "Money to Save," and "Money to Spend." He gets a two-dollars-per-week allowance. We give it to him as a dollar bill and 4 quarters; that way one quarter can be given to the God jar, one to the savings jar, and the rest in the spend jar. On Sunday, he takes the quarter from God's jar, and takes it to church. He fills out the offering envelope and proudly makes his offering at church.

As we implemented the jar system we discussed the following things with him:

- 1) God made everything, so everything is God's. Even us. We are God's creation. We are thankful that God created everything. God has given us so much that we want to give back to God, too.
- 2) We want to think about God first. So, the first jar we put money in will be the "Money for God" jar.
- 3) We give to God because we love God. We also show God our love by going to church, praying, and doing good for others. In fact, when we give money to the church, it helps the church do the things God has asked the church to do.

It helps the church teach people about God so that other people can know that God loves them, too. The jar method seemed to teach what we think is most important for a child to know about giving to God.

All Saints Sunday November 6th 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. Services

One of the oldest traditions of the church is the remembrance of those who have died during the last year on All Saints' Day. This beloved tradition has been important in this congregation for many years.

We remember beloved members of the church, special loved ones of our families, and those for whom we have performed funeral and memorial services. Our remembrance includes pictures, the tolling of the bell, and the lighting of the candles.

You may be remembering a loved one this year. We would like to give thanks to God for their life in our All Saints Day service on November 6th during both services. It is our privilege to remember those who moved onto the church triumphant, even as we hold the tenderness of loss. Please join me in praying for all who are remembering loved ones.

House Blessings

"And now, O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are true, and you have promised this good thing to your servant; now therefore may it please you to bless the house of your servant, so that it may continue forever before you; for you, O Lord GOD, have spoken, and with your blessing shall the house of your servant be blessed forever." 2 Samuel 7: 28-29 From biblical times, when someone moved into a new dwelling, words of blessing were offered over the new home. Home blessings involve prayers, scripture reading, and movement throughout the house.

If you are interested in a home blessing, please contact Pastor Monica.

With a deep and abiding understanding
Of our profound gratitude.

After Sept. 11, 2001, United Methodist Men took over support of the project. The devotional is for armed forces personnel and was written for use during World War II and the Korean conflict.

The book was updated and reprinted in 2002 thanks to Evan Hunsberger, an Eagle Scout, who found his grandfather's worn copy and made it his mission to get the book updated and republished.

Baptism

- Through baptism we are joined with the church and with Christians everywhere.
- Baptism is a symbol of new life and a sign of God's love and forgiveness of our sins.
- Persons of any age can be baptized. We baptize by sprinkling, immersion or pouring.
- A person receives the sacrament of baptism only once in his or her life.
- See One of our Pastors or the Church Office for information about Baptism for you or your children.

Planning for the Future

We plan for the future all the time. We hope to have enough milk, eggs, and bread during a snowstorm. We hope to have enough gas to get to our destination. We hope to make good life choices to achieve who God has called us to be. We might want to plan for a future beyond ourselves as we consider wills, estate planning, legacies, and even our own funeral or memorial service.

Sometimes, persons are interested in sharing their wishes and desires for funeral and memorial services with loved ones ahead of time. Other times, information is written in places to be discovered upon death. In other circumstances, families wish to respect the wishes of a loved one, but are unsure as to what best honors their loved one. Prayerfully consider, if you might want to record those thoughts with the church. The church can retain and hold those wishes for you, so that information might be shared and available when appropriate.

If you are interested in recording your hopes for your own services, please be in contact with Donna in the office for a guide or Pastor Monica to discuss your thoughts.

CMO PRESCHOOL

Children's Morning Out Program

Fall is in the air and the children of the CMO and Preschool have been very busy. The teachers have been teaching about the season of Fall and planning many hands-on activities to go along with this theme. You may see our children raking pretend leaves, sampling apple turnovers they made, or painting with vibrant fall colors. We began our Chapel Time with Pastor Monica the last week of September. The children are enjoying hearing the stories that Pastor Monica is sharing with them. They also love the songs that Pastor Monica shares. This month the song is "My God is So Big", and the children sing it loud and proud. We once again offered an after school enrichment program for this fall. It is soccer shots. Soccer shots is a beginning soccer program for preschool aged children. A "soccer coach" comes each Wednesday and teaches the children about soccer. It is so much fun and the children are really enjoying it.

CMO Chapel Time with Pastor Monica

If you wander through the Sanctuary on Wednesday or Thursday mornings between 11:15 and 11:45 am, you may stumble upon Chapel with our preschool friends.

Each chapel time includes a story, a song, and a prayer. Our stories come from our special book called the Bible. Songs are sung for a full month for us to all learn them well. Prayers are echo style.

Adjourned Session of Annual Conference

On October 1st, you were represented at the Adjourned Session of Annual Conference by Pastor Monica, Pastor Jim, and Cindy Haley.

At Adjourned Session, we approved the resolution to redistrict our churches from 6 districts to 4 districts. This will include the reduction of 6 district superintendents, resource assistants, district offices, and district parsonages to four of each. West Grove UMC remains in the new South district with The Rev. Dawn Taylor-Storm as DS. This movement was a response to the financial realities in which the conference is seeking sustainable financial solutions in a challenging world.

We approved the 2017 budget for the Conference. West Grove UMC has received the first of the revised figures for our budget already. We await health insurance costs as the Pension Board is still working on those figures with healthcare providers.

We revised policies on Safe Sanctuary and Computer Network and Internet usage. All are available at <https://www.epaumc.org/news-events/2016-ac-adjourned-session/>

We are thankful for all who care for our church.

Mark you calendars for Pastor Monica teaching a course on American Sign Language and Carols on November 27th, December 4th, 11th, and 18th during our Faith Learning Academy at 9:45 am.

The day was like a fairy tale. The weather was perfect, the bride was beautiful, the groom was beaming with joy, and a dream was coming true. Vira Les and Richard King III were married on September 25, 2016. Vira and Richie are beginning their new life in Richie's home town, Spring Lake, New Jersey.

West Grove UMC has seen Vira grow up from afar since the Russian occupancy dissolved in Ukraine in the early 1990's. Our ties and connections to her and her family, across the sea, began through a Christian Ministry in California, bridging Christian families together in two different worlds.

Fast forward to 2016, God continues to bless our relationship with Vira, now just two hours away, and her family in Ukraine. God is the God of miracles. "Lord, I praise you because You are the God who performs miracles; you display your power among the people..." Psalm 77:14

Singing His praises,
Pastor Shirley

Prayer Ministry

Let us be in prayer for you. When you request prayer by contacting the church, you will hear three questions:

- Would you like this on the prayer chain?
- Would you like your name in the bulletin for prayer?
- Would you like your prayer need shared at gathered prayer in worship?

We are asking these questions to clarify how we can best share your joy or need. Thanks be to God for all who pray!

R.O.M.E.O.

Retired Older Men Eating Out

Romeos will not meet in November due to the Thanksgiving Holiday!

- Uncomfortable pressure, squeezing, fullness or pain in the center of your chest. It lasts more than a few minutes, or goes away and comes back.
- Pain or discomfort in one or both arms, the back, neck, jaw or stomach.
- Shortness of breath with or without chest discomfort.
- Other signs such as breaking out in a cold sweat, nausea or lightheadedness.

As with men, women's most common heart attack symptom is chest pain or discomfort. But women are somewhat more likely than men to experience some of the other common symptoms, particularly shortness of breath, nausea /vomiting and back or jaw pain.

If you have any of these signs, call 9-1-1 and get to a hospital right away.

We've all seen the movie scenes where a man gasps, clutches his chest and falls to the ground. In reality, a heart attack victim could easily be a woman, and the scene may not be that dramatic.

"Although men and women can experience chest pressure that feels like an elephant sitting across the chest, women can experience a heart attack without chest pressure," said Nieca Goldberg, M.D., medical director for the Joan H. Tisch Center for Women's Health at NYU's Langone Medical Center and an American Heart Association volunteer. "Instead they may experience shortness of breath, pressure or pain in the lower chest or upper abdomen, dizziness, lightheadedness or fainting, upper back pressure or extreme fatigue."

Even when the signs are subtle, the consequences can be deadly, especially if the victim doesn't get help right away.

I thought I had the flu'

Even though heart disease is the No. 1 killer of women in the United States, women often chalk up the symptoms to less life-threatening conditions like acid reflux, the flu or normal aging.

"They do this because they are scared and because they put their families first," Goldberg said. "There are still many women who are shocked that they could be having a heart attack."

A heart attack strikes someone about every 43 seconds. It occurs when the blood flow that brings oxygen to the heart muscle is severely reduced or cut off completely. This happens because the arteries that supply the heart with blood can slowly narrow from a buildup of fat, cholesterol and other substances (plaque).

Many women think the signs of a heart attack are unmistakable — the image of the elephant comes to mind — but in fact they can be subtler and sometimes confusing.

You could feel so short of breath, "as though you ran a marathon, but you haven't made a move," Goldberg said.

Some women experiencing a heart attack describe upper back pressure that feels like squeezing or a rope being tied around them, Goldberg said. Dizziness, lightheadedness or actually fainting are other symptoms to look for.

"Many women I see take an aspirin if they think they are having a heart attack and never call 9-1-1," Goldberg said. "But if they think about taking an aspirin for their heart attack, they should also call 9-1-1."

Take care of yourself

Heart disease is preventable. Here are Goldberg's top tips:

- Schedule an appointment with your healthcare provider to learn your personal risk for heart disease. You can also learn your risk with our Heart Attack Risk Calculator.
- Quit smoking. Did you know that just one year after you quit, you'll cut your risk of coronary heart disease by 50 percent?
- Start an exercise program. Just walking 30 minutes a day can lower your risk for heart attack and stroke.
- Modify your family's diet if needed. Check out these healthy cooking tips. You'll learn smart substitutions, healthy snacking ideas and better prep methods. For example, with poultry, use the leaner light meat (breasts) instead of the fattier dark meat (legs and thighs), and be sure to remove the skin.

West Grove UMC Celebrates 130th Anniversary!

We will be celebrating our 130th anniversary starting this fall. As we celebrate the faithfulness of the people called Methodists in West Grove, we recommit ourselves to a vision of knowing God and sharing God with our community.

You are a part of that living history of those who are continuing in growth from our rootedness in gratitude and growing in Christ. Thank you for being a part of this congregation and the larger body of Christ. We are inviting all our congregation to give from gratitude to our roots. You may have received a letter and leaf. This leaf represents an opportunity to make a commitment to the roots and growth of West Grove UMC as a church in the community.

We are inviting our congregation to join together in making a commitment to give $25/month for 12 months above and beyond any regular giving. This gift allows us to serve our community with worship and education, food pantry and Family Promise, youth programming and children's events.

We celebrate all of the ways God has blessed us through your generosity.

Generosity exemplifies the best parts of who we are as God's people and as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

SCRIP Scripts

It's the perfect time to start using SCRIP!!! Take the time to talk with fellow congregant currently using the program or reach out to John Boyd or a Trustee.

NOVEMBER'S TIP(S):

The holiday season is about to make its entrance with many additional activities, family gatherings, and extra expenses. By taking a few minutes to plan ahead and budget over the course of a few weeks you can enjoy the holidays without added financial stress.

Begin preparing for Thanksgiving: Pick up a Giant, Acme card for meal planning and preparation. Start thinking for future ham dinners and purchase a Honey Baked Ham card either as a gift or to use for family gatherings. Perhaps a Marshall, Target, Kohls, or Walmart card can be planned out in increments of $10 or $25 to purchase decorations, pick up small gifts, or additional paper products. By having cards on hand, taking full advantage of sales, and with coupon stacking, you can maximize your savings and maintain your budget. Planning to travel this season, then don't forget to pick up gas and Wawa cards for essentials.

Proverbs 13:16 A wise man thinks ahead; a fool doesn't, and even brags about it!

Have You Remembered To Include West Grove UMC In Your Will?

One inescapable reality in Life is that we all must pass someday...sometimes with anticipation, sometimes unexpectedly. An important consideration for those of us who have been generous to our church throughout all our lives is, "How can I continue to support its ministry even after my death?" Making a provision to West Grove UMC in your estate planning is as simple as a couple of lines included into your will - but don't wait to make those plans. For assistance with this important feature of your own discipline of stewardship, talk with your financial planner or just call the church office. More elaborate gift bequests can be brokered through the church professionals at the Mid-Atlantic Foundation. Consider leaving a tithe (10%) of your estate to West Grove UMC at your death...or even a flat gift amount which you specify...and then enjoy the length of your days knowing that you have made this faithful choice!

Planting Seeds for Ministry Growth

Pastor Monica and Cindy Haley attended on October 22nd at Hopewell UMC. Dr. Reggie McNeil, the speaker, was thought provoking and inspiring. Cindy also attended a workshop on prayer and labyrinths.

Ask them about their experiences. There is lots to share!

Connectional Contributions: Did you know?

Pastor Monica is the chair of the Southeast District Committee on Ministry. She serves on the Board of Ordained Ministry. She serves on Annual Conference Sessions for worship planning. She is the co-convenor of Women in Professional Ministry and the Peace with Justice Coordinator for the Conference.

Pastor Shirley serves on our District Resource Team.

Pastor Jim serves on Conference Communications as a photographer and recently preached at New London UMC, Avondale UMC, and Booth's Corner UMC.

Thanks be to God for our clergy connecting beyond our walls!

Be a Good Steward

Various committees are writing the church budget for the coming year. They're placing their trust in God and believing in our members and friends to support the church's ministry. Let us all show our faithfulness with good stewardship through our time, talents and treasures.

Stop Hunger Now packages and ships meals to feed people in need. They have engaged over 500,000 corporate, student, civic and faith-based volunteers to package meals.

They educate thousands of people each year about hunger and inspire them to help end it. This year, they will package 45 million meals, and ship over $9 million in donated aid, mainly vitamins and medical supplies. On the day, you package meals with preset foods and in a preset process. All you need to raise is 29 cents for each meal you package.

Stop Hunger Now meals are nutritiously sound. Every dehydrated rice/soy meal is fortified with 23 essential vitamins and nutrients. Research has shown that one in three people in developing countries are adversely affected by vitamin and mineral deficiencies. Join us!

If you can not join us, you can help by covering the cost of a meal. At 29cents a meal, consider giving $6 and covering the cost of 20 meals.

Donate Calendars!

Missions ConneXion is also asking for donations of calendars that can be used by inmates or homeless folks trying to get back on their feet. These are small and should be able to fit in a small bag and be designed so that appointments can be added and a section with an address book. The dollar store carries perfect ones. These will be added to the next set of emergency backpacks with extras going to shelters.

Update on District Mission Project

We give thanks to God for West Grove UMC as one of the churches in the Southeast District who have given $109,000 in the 2 years to fund and furnish the new Mpsa Pediatric Clinic. On our Bishop's day on the district, we received this update:

Ground was broke on October 17th for the Pediatric Clinic. As much as possible, the equipment purchases will take place either with Congolese businesses or with business willing to work with Congolese manufacturers. This will be the only ultrasound and incubator in area!

Missionaries, Rev. Jonathan and Donna (nurse) Baker told this story.

While they were in Congo, a leader described the partnership between Mpsa and the churches in the USA as a two headed man. This was based on an experience of seeing what he thought was a two headed man. As the man came closer, it became clear there were two individuals. One was carrying the other on his back. The man walking was strong to carry, but had no sight. The one on the back was clear sighted, but had no legs. They needed other another to walk and see. Much like we need each other in this partnership.

Thanks be to God when God's people work together!

Praying for our Presidential Election

By Bishop Peggy A. Johnson

It seems that I can't remember a time when we as a nation were not talking about the 2016 U.S. Presidential election. Almost the minute the 2012 election ended, the speculation about the next President began. One by one, people came forward announcing their candidacy. Then there were the endless debates, rallies, primaries, conventions, and now more debates. The relentless stream of repetitive news, survey polls and opinions about our major nominees crowd the full media spectrum. And there's more than enough scandal, mud-slinging and speculation, much of it fueled by leaked, once-secret e-mail messages and videos. Campaign fatigue set in for me a long time ago. But I have not given up my concern for our nation, nor my hopes for the best and my prayers for God's grace as we choose our next POTUS and Commander in Chief.

As followers of Jesus Christ we are called to be the salt and light of the world, not just the church. The next President of our country can cast a vision and offer an agenda for the future of this nation like few people on earth. We are called to work for good in this world, along with our governmental leaders, and to call our nation to seek righteousness and pursue justice for all. I ask you to pray every day for this election.

I Timothy 2:1-2 says "I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers and intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people, for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness." Please pray for the next president every Sunday at worship and also in your personal times of prayer. Also I remind you that United Methodist pastors and leaders should not advocate for any particular candidate, publically or privately. Everyone should vote as they feel led to vote. Our constitution's principle of "separation of church and state" forbids us from promoting one party or candidate over another.

That said, responsible Christians are called to study carefully the platforms and policies of the candidates, so they can prayerfully make careful decisions on Election Day.

Finally, be sure that you do cast a vote. Voting is an incredible right that our form of government affords us. Many people on this globe have no such option. Find no excuse to stay home on November 8; and if you cannot physically be present, cast an absentee ballot now.

UMCOR, churches respond to Hurricane Matthew's destruction

Hurricane Matthew, one of the fiercest hurricanes in nearly a decade, left a trail of destruction including nearly 1,000 dead in Haiti and up to 90 percent of some areas there destroyed, plus nearly 40 dead in the Southeast United States— from North Carolina to Florida.

The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) acted quickly in response to the death and destruction in the Caribbean, most notably in Haiti, our hemisphere's poorest nation. UMCOR's provision of emergency supplies, food, health kits, and other assistance builds on its sustained presence in Haiti since a disastrous earthquake struck there in January 2010. The relief agency will also assist Bahamas Methodist Habitat in response to Matthew's damage.

The United Methodist Florida Conference reported 29 church damage claims as of Oct. 11; but none are uninhabitable. Six of the 12 districts in the South Carolina Conference have seen damage from the storm, several with massive flooding. Disaster relief teams in these states, North Carolina and also South Georgia are still assessing damage.

Cleaning buckets are needed in all affected areas. The United Methodist Committee on Relief has directions on their web site for assembling the buckets. Donations can be given online at Disaster Response, International #982450 and United States Disaster Response Fund, North Carolina, South Carolina, and South Georgia are also asking for donations.
