Prelude “Hymn and Kum Bah Yah” AGIS Flute Ensemble

Welcome and Ministry Opportunities Pastor Monica

*Please fill out the Friendship Register on the clipboard located on a chair in your row.
First-time guest or member, let us know you were here!*

*Call to Worship (Responsive) (based on Psalm 130:7, Ezekiel 37:3) TBA
One: Out of the depths, we cry to you. Like Ezekiel, we ask “Can these bones live?”
Many: Through the Lord, we can know life in lifeless bones and hope in hopeless states.
One: With the Lord, there is steadfast love and power to redeem each and every one!
Many: Let us worship God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer!

*Processional Hymn “O Worship The King” UMH No. 73, Vv. 1-3, 5

*Opening Prayer (Unison) TBA
Our Redeemer and Friend, we pray this day as we wait for you. Sometimes we pray, how long as we cry out for the needs of our world and our hearts. Sometimes, we lift our voices in praise as we see the miracles of life coming out of death. Sometimes, we beg just to hear and see you. As your people gather to seek you and not just to fulfill an obligation, let us be unbound to offer our full lives to you. Show us who and whose we are, bearers of good news, messengers of the resurrection, and children of God, in whose name we pray, Amen.

*Passing of the Peace TBA
One: The peace of Christ be with you.
Many: And also with you.

Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. AMEN.
- *Offertory Prayer (Unison) Pastor Monica
Giver of Life, we praise you for giving us life out of death. All around us, we see signs of new life. As we offer these commitments of tithes, gifts, and offerings, may we be agents of new life. May new life flow through these offerings and the offering of our lives. Dedicate and use us for signs of your kingdom here on earth, we pray, Amen.
- Invitation Pastor Monica
- Prayer of Confession Pastor Monica
Weeping God, like Martha and Mary, we often find ourselves with more questions than answers. We find that we offered platitudes and pleasantries, instead of presence and compassion. We shy away from the foul smelling moments of life, hoping that it will just go away. Forgive us, we pray, when we forget your power and your presence. Forgive us, we pray, when we listen to the voices of crowds and culture instead of you. Holy God, we confess we hear you calling in the midst of our questions and quandaries. Embolden us, we pray, to bring our doubts and needs, our bafflement and disappointments to you.

Old Testament Lesson: Psalm 130

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications! If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with you, so that you may be revered. I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning, more than those who watch for the morning. O Israel, hope in the Lord! For with the Lord there is steadfast love, and with him is great power to redeem. It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Gospel Lesson: John 11:1-45

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world. But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them." After saying this, he told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him." The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right." Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep. Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."

When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

OPEN ~ GROW ~ SERVE

At West Grove UMC, we love God by opening our hearts to Jesus, growing our faith and serving our community and world in His name.

Welcome to this gathering of God's people. If you have come as a guest, we hope that you'll leave as a friend and pray you'll be nourished in faith as you hear God's message for you today. ## Moment of Impact

GSR Food Pantry

At West Grove, we feed those in need. We feed people spiritually and physically. Our food pantry serves families in the moment of needs. Those who have ongoing needs we direct to ongoing sustainable food pantry organizations. It is through your generosity that we serve those in emergency situations: a job loss, a broken water heater, a car accident, an unexpected hospitalization. Be the hands of Christ to serve those in urgent need.

Coming up! March 1-April 16, 2017

WHAT IS GSR?

Give | Serve | Restore is an annual project that gathers churches of Southern Chester County to bring hope and healing to our community during the season of Lent.

WHY DO GIVE | SERVE | RESTORE? The goal of Give | Serve | Restore (GSR) is for people to work together to bless our community!

West Grove UMC is again participating in GSR this year as follows:

1 Service / Good Works: The wall in the lobby is set up for everyone to be encouraged to do small or large acts of kindness and service to others during Lent. Please fill-out a post it note with your kind gestures noted and place on the wall.

2 Pounds of Food: We encourage all to bring in 2 pounds of non-perishable food to help stock our Emergency Food Cupboard. We have a goal of collecting 200 pounds. You can watch our progress on the goal board in the lobby.

$3 (Kids) / $30 (Adults): We encourage you to use that $30 to help our community thrive!

This year, donations will benefit Casa Youth Advocates -a local non-profit organization working for the restoration of our community. Casa Youth Advocates believes that every child needs an advocate. They aim to speak for the best interests of abused and neglected children who are involved in the family courts, and do so by mobilizing and supporting quality volunteers to serve as advocates for the children they serve. Casa serves Delaware County and is expanding their service into Chester County. Please write your check out to West Grove UMC (with memo: GSR, CASA).

Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, April 2 ~ Saturday, April 8

Sunday: “Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD. Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!” Psalm 130: 1-2. God is always more ready to hear your questions than we are to ask them. Find moments today to cry out to God your questions and then wait for God to answer you fully!

Monday: “If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with you, so that you may be revered.” Psalm 130: 3-4. Sometimes our questions include ways in which we were wronged or ways in which we have done questionable things. In God, there is overflowing forgiveness. Today, turn to God for forgiveness and start a new chapter!

Tuesday: “I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning, more than those who watch for the morning.” Psalm 130: 5-6. Anytime you have awoken in the middle of the night and cannot go back to sleep, you know the desire for the morning to come. Take time today to wait for the Lord with that same desire.

Wednesday: “So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.” But when Jesus heard it, he said, “This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” John 11: 3-4. Mary and Martha turned to Jesus. Jesus did not ignore them, but rather knew an even better time. Where is God pointing you to wait for the even better timing?

Thursday: “Jesus began to weep.” John 11: 35 Jesus weeps with us in the midst of the most difficult moments. Turn to Jesus today and know his love for you.

Friday: “I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” John 11: 32. Jesus prayed for Lazarus out loud and let God use the difficult circumstance to show the larger crowd the power of God for redemption and new life.

Saturday: “When Jesus had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.” Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.” John 11: 34-45. Jesus calls each of us out of the pain, suffering, addiction, and negative behaviors that lead us to death. Jesus calls us to be unbound and go into new life!
