New Testament Lesson: Acts 2:1-21, 37-47

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?” Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.” And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added. They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Moment of Impact

Last year, we began this new ministry to reach into our community for food, fellowship, and a brief word of God. On Wednesdays in June, July, and August, we offered hot dogs and drinks, inviting others to bring sides. Games were played, conversations were had, and fellowship was built. Join us again this year as we reach into our community.

OPEN ~ GROW ~ SERVE

At West Grove UMC, we love God by opening our hearts to Jesus, growing our faith and serving our community and world in His name.

Welcome to our celebration of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit breathed the church into being! May we continue to be moved by the Spirit to live as the body of Christ. If you have come as a guest, we hope that you'll leave as a friend and pray you'll be nourished in faith as you hear God's message for you today. We encourage you to join us again. Please honor us by signing the Friendship pad. Our Welcome Center, located in the lobby, is a place where guests and new attendees can seek information about our church.

This special program will include moving testimonies of individuals who have come to experience the peace in letting go that only Christ can provide. To register call the church office 610-869-9334 (Donna Fackler) or email registration to: cmcginley@zoominternet.net Please contact Carol McGinley (spiritual director) at 610-453-4114 with your questions. This program is for adults only and child care is not provided.

Visitation

MINISTRY

“I was sick and you visited me . . .” (Matthew 25, 36)

Visitors bring joy to the homebound and those who are lonely or isolated. Did you know visiting has been a part of the Church’s practices since our beginnings? Visiting is the works of mercy. Jesus speaks of them, “I was hungry, and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me to drink . . . I was sick, and you visited me . . .”

Visiting the homebound is not only ‘a good deed;’ it’s a privilege that the Lord bestows on each and every one of us, if we choose to accept it. With this ministry, we are called to sacrifice a little bit of time, plus we become representatives of the larger Church.

I know it can be daunting to go into a stranger’s home for the first time, but in general I have found that they are grateful for a chance to chat and have a visit. It brings us close together as children of God and as members of the Body of Christ.

This is a rewarding ministry, meeting others, getting to know the people and their families. Many times the visitor finds they were getting as much out of the visit as the other person. If you are interested in visiting the homebound and the lonely, please contact me, Pastor Shirley Daddario at Shirleydad@verizon.net. Or call 302-420-4032.

Your sister in Christ,
Pastor Shirley

Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, May 15 ~ Saturday, May 21

Sunday: “When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place” Acts 2:1. God appears among God’s people. Where are you gathering with others for the purpose of expecting God to show up?

Monday: “And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.” Acts 2:2-3. God often comes in sudden ways. Where has God shown up in your life?

Tuesday: “All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.” Acts 2:4. God gifts each of us. What gifts has God given you to share?

Wednesday: “In the last days it will be, God declares that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.” Acts 2:17. God is speaking through male and female, young and old. Listen, God is still speaking.

Thursday: “Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” Acts 2:21. Prayerfully spend time with God today.

Friday: “Peter said to them, ‘Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.’” Acts 2:38 . God is generous and gives all that we need.

Saturday: “Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles.” Acts 2:43. Apostles, those called by God can do incredible acts in God’s name. Awe lives in our relationships with God.
