Creator, Builder, Architect, Designer—
 You are always making something new in us, and in the world around us.
 Open our hearts to knowing you in a new way,
 to experiencing your love in a new way,
 and in sharing your love in new ways.
 May we be open hearted and open minded to know that you are far beyond what we can imagine, far beyond whatever walls we try to construct,
 for you are always beyond the bounds of our limitations.
 Open our hearts to have no boundaries, no walls, and no limits.

Old Testament Lesson: 1 Kings 21:1-21a

Later the following events took place: Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, beside the palace of King Ahab of Samaria. And Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your vineyard, so that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near my house; I will give you a better vineyard for it; or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its value in money." But Naboth said to Ahab, "The Lord forbid that I should give you my ancestral inheritance." Ahab went home resentful and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him; for he had said, "I will not give you my ancestral inheritance." He lay down on his bed, turned away his face, and would not eat.

His wife Jezebel came to him and said, "Why are you so depressed that you will not eat?" He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it'; but he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" His wife Jezebel said to him, "Do you now govern Israel? Get up, eat some food, and be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal; she sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who lived with Naboth in his city. She wrote in the letters, "Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the assembly; seat two scoundrels opposite him, and have them bring a charge against him, saying, 'You have cursed God and the king.' Then take him out, and stone him to death." The men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent word to them. Just as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them, they proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the assembly. The two scoundrels came in and sat opposite him; and the scoundrels brought a charge against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him outside the city, and stoned him to death. Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned; he is dead."

As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Go, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead." As soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab set out to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

Then the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying: Go down to meet King Ahab of Israel, who rules[a] in Samaria; he is now in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to take possession. You shall say to him, "Thus says the Lord: Have you killed, and also taken possession?" You shall say to him, "Thus says the Lord: In the place where dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, dogs will also lick up your blood."

Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" He answered, "I have found you. Because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of the Lord, I will bring disaster on you; I will consume you, and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel;

Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, June 12 ~ Saturday, June 18

Sunday: “And Ahab said to Naboth, ‘Give me your vineyard, so that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near my house; I will give you a better vineyard for it; or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its value in money.’” 1 Kings 21: 2. Ahab coveted Naboth’s vineyard. Chaos and death come from this coveting. Where is God calling you to repent from coveting something of someone else’s?

Monday: “Ahab went home resentful and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him; for he had said, ‘I will not give you my ancestral inheritance.’ He lay down on his bed, turned away his face, and would not eat.” 1 King 21: 4. Being outside of the way of God can bring deep pain. Prayerfully ask God to show you where you might have missed the mark and are living outside of God’s way with resentment and brokenness.

Tuesday: “His wife Jezebel said to him, ‘Do you now govern Israel? Get up, eat some food, and be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.’” 1 Kings 21: 7. Be wary of those who elevate themselves into the role of God.

Wednesday: “Ahab said to Elijah, ‘Have you found me, O my enemy?’ He answered, ‘I have found you. Because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of the Lord,’” 1 Kings 21: 20. God is always seeking us. The prophet Elijah responded to God’s call to find Ahab and bring to him the word of God. Who is bringing you the word of God?

Thursday: “Simon answered, ‘I suppose the one for whom he cancelled the greater debt.’ And Jesus said to him, ‘You have judged rightly.’” Luke 7:43. Where can you give thanks to God for offering you incredible grace?

Friday: “Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.” Luke 7:47. Our freedom in Christ grows exponentially when we offer to others the love, forgiveness, and grace that we have experienced. Where are showing great love?

Saturday: “Soon afterwards he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him, as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, and Joanna, the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their resources.” Luke 8:1-3. Some of us follow Jesus because our lives have been changed, some of us feel called, others offer our resources to be used. Come and follow Jesus, the miraculous one!

Gospel Lesson: Luke 7:36, 8:3

One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee’s house and took his place at the table. And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee’s house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him—that she is a sinner.” Jesus spoke up and said to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” “Teacher,” he replied, “speak.” “A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. When they could not pay, he canceled the debts for both of them. Now which of them will love him more?” Simon answered, “I suppose the one for whom he canceled the greater debt.” And Jesus said to him, “You have judged rightly.” Then turning toward the woman, he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.” Then he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?” And he said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Soon afterwards he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him, as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, and Joanna, the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their resources.

Litany for Celebrating Sunday Morning Servants

Pastor: Here at West Grove United Methodist Church, we love God by opening our hearts to Jesus, growing our faith and serving our community and world in Jesus' name. We invite people to serve others unselfishly by finding a place of ministry in which we will not be spectators. These ministries of serving on Sunday mornings are a blessing and a serious responsibility. We recognize your special gifts and call you to work among us and for us.

People: We give thanks to God for Sunday School teachers and nursery workers, Roamers and Children's worship volunteers, Moment for All Ages leaders and the Children's Choir, the Children's Ministry team and Youth Ministry Team, Sunday Morning Coordinators and Acolytes, Ushers and Greeters, Lay Readers and Liturgists, Hospitality Team and Coffee Makers, Counters and PowerPoint creators, Sound Booth operators and Communion Stewards, PraiseWorks Band Members and Chancel Choir Members, Memory Bells Handbell Choir Members and Name Tag Ministers, Creating Spaces and all who contribute to worship and study on Sunday Mornings.

Pastor: We are all gifted and all called to serve God. Sometimes, we think that others will do it. Sometimes we shrug off the requests saying we are too busy and can't do another thing.

People: Open our hearts God to serve you. Call us again to serve here in this place.

Sunday Morning Servants: We give thanks to God for the gifts and opportunities to serve God. We pray that God will use US to serve others and draw them closer to God.

Pastor: Let us pray, Almighty God, pour out your blessings upon these your servants who have been given particular ministries in your church. Grant them grace to give themselves wholeheartedly in your service. Keep before them the example of our Lord, who did not think first of himself, but gave himself for us all. Let them share Christ's ministry that they may enter into the fullness of God's joy. Raise up additional servants of God to serve others. Guide them in their work. Reward their faithfulness with the knowledge that through them your purposes are accomplished; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.
