Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, September 18 ~ Saturday, September 24

Sunday: "First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone" 1 Timothy 2:1. Disciples live out the discipline of prayer. When are you intentionally praying – asking, thanking, listening to God?

Monday: "[Pray] for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity." 1 Timothy 2:2. Prayerfully consider pausing today to pray for governmental leaders, church leaders, community leaders, and business leaders.

Tuesday: "This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth." 1 Timothy 2:3-4. How is God showing you the knowledge of the truth today?

Wednesday: "For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all — this was attested at the right time." 1 Timothy 2:5-6. Our discipleship is under Jesus. Give thanks to God for Jesus.

Thursday: "For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth." 1 Timothy 2: 7. Paul, a disciple of Jesus, was called to be a teacher of faith and truth. Prayerfully consider where God is leading your discipleship towards.

Friday: "Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much." Luke 16: 10. In your discipleship, where is God offering you an opportunity to be faithful? Where is the experiment of being faithful with a little?

Saturday: "No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth." Luke 16:13. Discipleship includes all areas of your life, including your money. How is your money serving God?

New Testament Lessons: 1 Timothy 2:1-7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Gospel Lessons: Luke 16:1-13

Then Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.’ Then the manager said to himself, ‘What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.’ So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ He answered, ‘A hundred jugs of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.’ Then he asked another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He replied, ‘A hundred containers of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill and make it eighty.’ And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

“Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

All are welcome each Sunday, however, participants will get the most out of this class by following the selected readings from Dr. David W. Shenk's book Journeys of the Muslim Nation and the Christian Church: Exploring the Mission of Two Communities. We will read two chapters each week. David Shenk has travelled the globe speaking to leading Muslim clerics and Presidents of Muslim nations. His books can be viewed on Amazon. Whether you are new to the Bible or have been reading it for decades, join us as we explore the Bible and some foundational questions about how and when the Bible was written, how should we read it, and what does it mean?
