Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, November 6~ Saturday, November 12

Sunday: “Then he looked up at his disciples and said: ‘Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.’ Luke 6:20. Scholars have argued for both physical poverty and spiritual poverty. Pray today for both: those who are physically poor and struggling as well as those who are spiritually poor and struggling. Write a note of gratitude to someone who came to mind as you prayed.

Monday: “Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. ‘Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.’ Luke 6:21. Pray for those who are carrying the burden of grief. Write a note of gratitude to someone who is modeling one way to carry the burden of grief.

Tuesday: “First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity.” 1 Timothy 2:1-2. Pray today for all of our nation's leaders. Write a note of gratitude to leader for whom you prayed.

Wednesday: “Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.” Luke 6:22-23. Pray for those persecuted around the globe. As you pray, write a note of gratitude to someone persecuted for their faith.

Thursday: “But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.” Luke 6: 27-28. Hear the words of Jesus, pray for those who curse and abuse you. Write a note of gratitude to someone who gives you trouble.

Friday: “If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.” Luke 6: 29. Jesus challenges us with actions different than our instincts and different from the world around us. Write a note of gratitude today to someone who models this for you.

Saturday: “Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.” Luke 6: 30-31. Jesus' most famous words are some of the most challenging. How is God calling you to live them out today? Write a note of gratitude to someone in prison.

New Testament Lesson: Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gospel Lesson: Luke 6:20-31

Then Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

“Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

“Woe to you when all speak well of you,
for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.
