Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, November 27 ~ Saturday, December 3

Sunday: “How long, O Lord? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?” Psalm 13: 1. There are seasons of challenge and feeling far from God. Who can you write a note of gratitude to encourage in their season of feeling far from God?

Monday: “How long must I bear pain in my soul, and have sorrow in my heart all day long? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?” Psalm 13: 2. The psalmist knew pain in the soul and sorrow in the heart. We may as well. Write a note of gratitude to someone who has walked with you in your pain and sorrow.

Tuesday: “Consider and answer me, O Lord my God! Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death, and my enemy will say, ‘I have prevailed’; my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.” Psalm 13: 3-4. We often feel as though those who disagree with us are enemies. As we wait and watch for the kingdom of God, it might be that those who disagree with us are not enemies, but fellow children of God. Write a note of gratitude to someone with whom you disagree.

Wednesday: “But I trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation. I will sing to the Lord, because he has dealt bountifully with me.” Psalm 13: 5-6. God calls us to trust and rejoice, sing and see God in our lives. Write your last note of gratitude to God.

Thursday: “But the angel said to him, ‘Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John. You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth’” Luke 1: 13-14. God hears our prayers. God seeks to be with us in joy as well as challenge. Where is God calling to you?

Friday: “With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.” Luke 1: 17. John the Baptist came to prepare people for the Lord. How are preparing others as well as yourself for the full realization of the Lord.

Saturday: “After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion. She said, ‘This is what the Lord has done for me when he looked favorably on me and took away the disgrace I have endured among my people.’” Luke 1: 24-25. We often say, the patience of Job, but let us not forget the patience of Elizabeth. She waited all of her life for her heart’s desire and it was granted to her through her husband. Let us watch and wait for where God grants our heart’s desire through others.

On December 4th, we will welcome Vira Les King, part of Les family who are missionaries in Ukraine, at the 11:00 worship service.

Old Testament Lesson: Psalm 13

How long, O Lord? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
How long must I bear pain in my soul,
and have sorrow in my heart all day long?
How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?
Consider and answer me, O Lord my God!
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death,
and my enemy will say, "I have prevailed";
my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.
But I trusted in your steadfast love;
my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.
I will sing to the Lord,
because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Gospel Lesson: Luke 1: 5-25

In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord. But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years.

Once when he was serving as priest before God and his section was on duty, he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and offer incense. Now at the time of the incense offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified; and fear overwhelmed him. But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John. You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit. He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God. With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord." Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know that this is so? For I am an old man, and my wife is getting on in years." The angel replied, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. But now, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time, you will become mute, unable to speak, until the day these things occur."

Meanwhile the people were waiting for Zechariah, and wondered at his delay in the sanctuary. When he did come out, he could not speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept motioning to them and remained unable to speak. When his time of service was ended, he went to his home.

After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion. She said, "This is what the Lord has done for me when he looked favorably on me and took away the disgrace I have endured among my people."

The Lighting of the Advent Candle:
The Candle of Patience: Watch! Wait!

Reader 1: In the days to come, the Lord shall establish God's house upon earth!

Congregation: Watch! Wait! For God will do something special, something very unexpected.

Reader 2: Do not be hesitant. Place your trust in God's promise.

Reader 1: "But make sure that you don't get so absorbed and exhausted in taking care of all your day-by-day obligations that you lose track of the time and doze off, oblivious to God. The night is about over, dawn is about to break. Be up and awake to what God is doing! God is putting the finishing touches on the salvation work he began when we first believed. We can't afford to waste a minute, must not squander these precious daylight hours in frivolity and indulgence, in sleeping around and dissipation, in bickering and grabbing everything in sight. Get out of bed and get dressed! Don't loiter and linger, waiting until the very last minute. Dress yourselves in Christ, and be up and about!" (Adapted from Romans 13: 11-14)

Reader 2: Today we light this first candle, a special candle, lighted in darkness, shedding its meager light into our world. [The first purple candle across from pink is lighted.]

Congregation: Come, see the light. Let its brightness fill you. Come, feel the warmth of the light. Let it give you comfort.

Reader 1: Come, draw near to the light, for it is God's way of breaking through to you.

Reader 2: Come, rejoice in the light, for God is with us!

Please sing "Light The Advent Candle" TFWS, No. 2090, V, 1

OPEN ~ GROW ~ SERVE
