Old Testament: Genesis 50:15-21

Joseph Forgives His Brothers

Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers said, "What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?" So they approached Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this instruction before he died, 'Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.' Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, "We are here as your slaves." But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God? Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today. So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones." In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

Gospel: Matthew 18:21-35

Forgiveness

Then Peter came and said to him, "Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times."

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

"For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, 'Pay what you owe.' Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Coffee and lemonade is available every Sunday in the lobby to promote conversation with all of our friends and guests!

Commissioning Christian Educators, Children Ministry Volunteers, and Youth Workers

Pastor: Teaching the faith is one the best gifts we can offer to one another. Those who are called and gifted to teach, care, and love children, youth, and adults are indeed, seeking to build God's kingdom among us.

Congregation: We give thanks to God for the willingness of those who serve using their gifts of teaching, caring, and guiding. We ask God's blessings on them.

Pastor: You have recognized God's movement in your own lives and now seek to share that with others. Will you take seriously your role as a teacher and as a learner? Will you study and grow so that you might share with others the faith your discover?

Christian Educators, Children Ministry volunteers, and Youth workers: We have answered a call to teach, to lead, to support children, youth, and adults in their faith journeys. We trust in God's promises to equip and sustain us for the task. We rely on prayers and the presence of the Holy Spirit to share and teach.

Congregation: We promise to be in prayer for you and those whom you teach. We promise to be learners with you as we too, seek God's presence in our faith journeys.

Pastor offers prayer of blessing.
