*Opening Prayer (Unison)

(adapted from Africana Worship Book, Year B) Mary Franciscus

Holy God of us all, Jesus prayed that we might be one: one in spirit and in mission, one in union and in communion with each other and with You. Today, God, we confess fumblings and failures in accomplishing unity, as we set aside yet another day to remind ourselves of the task. On this World Communion Sunday, give us eyes to recognize your reflection in the eyes of Christians everywhere. Give us a mind to accept and celebrate our differences. Give us a heart big enough to love your children everywhere. We thank you for setting a table with space enough for us all! Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

God of time, for each moment, we give you thanks. You have gifted us with minutes, days, and years. May we use them to your glory and for your purposes. Help us prayerfully discern how to use our time. As we offer gifts, tithes, and offerings, may your blessings multiply them, so that the impact may echo through our community and around the world, we pray, Amen.

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Pastor Jim

Holy God, as we come to the table with gratitude for your presence and for this day to gather as the global church, we confess we have lost sight of our sisters and brothers. We have not seen your face in the eyes of our neighbors. We have found fear where hope might have lived. We have let time be driven by deadlines of opportunities. Forgive us, we pray. Open our hearts and minds for transformation to see a way in which we might see hope, peace, and love to live as God's people.

Old Testament Lesson: Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away; a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Gospel Lesson: Mark 7:24-37

From there Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophoenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, October 7 ~ Saturday, October 13

Sunday: “For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.” Ecclesiastes 3:1 As we begin this season of stewardship, we also enter a season of prayer. Pray for how you will share your time. We are each given 525,600 minutes a year. How will you use each moment in 2019?

Monday: “A time to be born, and a time to die;” Ecclesiastes 3:2a. Pray for those who have been born in 2018. Give thanks to God for new life. Pray for those families who are remembering loved ones. Give thanks to God for the lives of those you have loved.

Tuesday: “A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted” Ecclesiastes 3:2b. Pray for those who are planting and growing food that nourishes the body and that which nourishes the soul. Pray for those who discern when projects are completed and concluded.

Wednesday: “A time to kill, and a time to heal;” Ecclesiastes 3:3a. Pray for all those who have been affected by death. Pray for those in healing ministries.

Thursday: “A time to break down, and a time to build up;” Ecclesiastes 3:3b. Pray for times in which energy propels itself forward, as well those times in which destruction is a reality. May God’s presence bring comfort in the midst.

Friday: “A time to weep, and a time to laugh;” Ecclesiastes 3:4a. The body of Christ is encouraged to laugh with those who are laughing and cry with those who are crying. Pray for those who are burdened with weeping. Pray for those who have joy.

Saturday: “A time to mourn, and a time to dance;” Ecclesiastes 3:4b. Pray for those who are in a season of grieving. May they also know dancing. Pray for those who are in a season of dancing. May they be mindful of those who are grieving.
