September 2019

" They preached the gospel in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch, strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith." Acts 14: 21-22

Sunday morning is not the only time to share the message and peace of Jesus.

Church is not the only place people can hear you talk about Jesus.

Pastors are not the only ones to share their faith.

Knocking on a door is not the only way to give a testimony to the peace you know in Jesus.

Did any of those statements surprise you?

God calls all of us to work for the full peace of community. If we take this seriously, we can't help but talk about God's works outside of the church and Sunday morning with others.

In the book of Acts, what attracted those in the cities to the gospel of Christ? Preaching and living out peace. Paul and Barnabas preached, taught, and built communities of peace.

Let's take a look for a moment at that word, peace. In Hebrew, the word we translate as peace is shalom. In Greek, the word for peace is eirene. The word means wholeness or completeness, referring to a stone, that is without cracks, or a wall that has no missing bricks or gaps. Shalom refers to something that is complex with lots of parts. Job says that his tents are in shalom, because he has counted his flocks and no animals are missing (Job 5:24). We can wish one another shalom or ask about another's wellbeing with question of shalom?

Shalom reminds us that life is complex and moving parts. When any part of our life breaks down, is missing or needs to be restored, we shalom it. Bringing shalom is the act of making complete or to restore. Solomon gets the distinction of bringing shalom to the unfinished temple, by completing it (1 Kings 9:25). If your animal has gotten out and wreaked havoc, you bring shalom by giving a complete repayment. You take what's missing and restore it to wholeness. This is the same principle in relationships; reconciling is bringing shalom. Shalom is not just when rival kingdoms stop fighting, but rather, when they actually start working together.

At the prayer walk, peace was our theme. Peace to teachers setting up their classrooms. Peace to staff caring for aging parents. Peace to administrators working on last minute details for our students. Peace for first time students. We prayed with educators for peace in their classrooms and lives.

God's peace is for all God's people. John Wesley reminded us that the "world is my parish." You and I are called to share blessings of peace not just with those who live under our roof, but with others. Sharing peace can include blessing your children, nieces, or nephews as well as reconciliation with those I am at odds.

My peace depends on the peace of my brothers and sisters. When one of my brothers or sisters are lacking peace, I am to work to restore their peace. Where are you working for God's peace? Who are the people in our community that all churches are overlooking as we seek God's peace? May God's peace be yours to share!

In God's Love, Pastor Monica

Sermon Series: Game of Judges

The good, the bad and the ugly! An honest look at Israel's Judges.

Israel followed God's law, then turned from it, fell into sin, and then, begged for a deliverer — just like us! Their story is our story.

How can we break the generational cycle of sin? Follow God's true way!

Handbells

September is here – Memory Bells are back!!!

Do you like music? Do you think you'd like to try ringing bells? The Memory Bells will start rehearsing on Mondays, beginning September 9 at 6:30. We are in need of two ringers for our smallest bells, and have one position available for our very largest bells, which takes a bit of muscle. Playing bells is a large commitment since the first requirement is that you be present every Monday night, or find a substitute to fill in (we provide a sub list). We play in church the third Sunday of every month, plus a few extra events such as Advent Music Night, Christmas Eve, Easter, and one performance at the Twin Pines Nursing Home. But we can guarantee that it is a very rewarding commitment, in addition to a lot of fellowship and friendship.

If you are interested, but don't feel that you can make a full-time commitment, we could add you to our substitute list. Another option – at this point we are planning two or three pieces that would sound even more glorious with a piano/organ accompanist. If this is your talent, perhaps you could join us on a very short-term basis by doing that.

Sound interesting? Please contact Sandy Deckard at 484-887-0003 (home phone) or call/text her at 610-563-9500. Many bell-essings to you!

Children's Morning Out Preschool

CMO and Preschool is off to a terrific start!!! We were so happy to welcome back all of the preschool children and families during the week of September 3rd. The children quickly become reacquainted with old friends and meet lots of new friends. They spend the first few weeks of preschool getting to know one another and the teachers. We are looking forward to a terrific year!!

Our Fall/Winter Consignment Sale is quickly approaching in October. The sale dates for this year are the 18th and 19th. The consignment sales are huge fundraisers for the preschool program. The profits help us provide scholarships for children in the community, as well as purchase supplies for our classrooms. There are many ways you can participate in the sale; you can consign, shop and volunteer. Consignment instructions, tags, and volunteer signup sheets are available in the hallway by the preschool and also by the church volunteer office.

I am always looking for substitute teachers. If you have an interest in being a sub for the preschool, reach out to me and I can share the details. It is a great way to make a little extra money and support this mission of the church.

Be sure to check out the bulletin boards in the hallway to see all of the beautiful art work !

WEST GROVE UMC FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Our church financial status has been stable through July, 2019. For the month of July, we received income of $52,567 and incurred $50,018 of expenses resulting in an excess of cash received over expenses in the amount of $2,549. For the year-to-date seven month period ended July 31, 2019, we received total income of $234,617 and incurred total expenses of $221,206 resulting in an excess of cash received over expenses in the amount of $13,411.

As promised, we reviewed our apportionments quarterly and have paid through April leaving an outstanding balance of $13,509.

Marc Simmons, Chair of the Finance Committee

SENIORS AND THEIR RMD

The changes in the income tax law now allows Seniors, who have IRA's and are required to take a yearly RMD (Required Minimum Distribution), can make a QCD (Qualified Charitable Distribution) from their IRA account to a charity like West Grove UMC and still satisfy the RMD. The advantage is the amount of the QCD which is given to the church, is directly taken off your income tax and you can still claim the standard deduction if you do not itemize.

By doing this, you lower your taxable income and you give a charitable gift to our church. To do this you must ask your IRA custodian for the forms for the QCD. They need to deduct your gift from your RMD and they will send it directly to West Grove UMC and you will get your RMD amount less the charitable gift. Both you and our church are winners.

Pastor Jim

Thank yous and Gratitude

thank you

Thank you to Rev. Dr. David Frame for leading worship on Sunday, July 14th, at Jenner's Pond.

Thank you to Carol Whelan and Joan Saller who worked tirelessly to spot clean and then shampoo the sanctuary and administrative wing carpets.

Thank you to Aiden Seltzer for shredding so many documents for the office that he wore out the machine!

Thank to Carol Whelan for weeding and mulching the front garden in intense summer heat.

Thank you to Fred Sullivan who faithfully sets up the sanctuary each week for our Sunday services and also makes sure that the sign out front reflects all that is offered at our church.

Thank you to Jackson May and Gene Aucott who are working on Jackson's Eagle Scout project by building a new corral to house our trash and recycles.

Thank you to Mark Simonds and the Boy Scouts who are doing a great job building the shed on the rear of the property to help our Charter 12 Scouts have a storage space.

Thank you to Linda Shiplet whose flower decorating skills also bless our altar space. Even when no one has signed up for Altar Flowers, she makes sure there is a beautiful arrangement.

There are many unspoken thank yous. You know who you are! The list would be a mile long as is the gratitude of your church. There is always space to recognize and give thanks, so please email Donna in the church office (office@westgroveumc.org) if you feel especially thankful and want to have it told to the congregation in the newsletter!

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE NEWS

Connectional Giving

Our offering empowered ministry within our congregation and in response to the needs of our community. It also supported the work of our church through United Methodist Communications to establish a new Communications Center for United Methodists in the four conferences in Nigeria.

With a modest grant of $11,500 from World Service Fund, ten laptops, a projector, copier and printer, smart board, internet connectivity, and a year of staffing were provided. With the size of Nigeria and the difficulty in traveling from one place to another, this will help Nigerian United Methodists stay better connected to the conference, the bishop, tone another, and tour wider, global church. This ministry happens, thanks to the way the people of The United Methodist Church live and give connectionally. We give thanks for your generosity, as we worship God through sharing our gifts, tithes, and offerings

Domestic Violence: The Church Responds II Breaking Out of the Man Box

Sponsored by The Eastern PA Conference
Domestic Violence Committee

Saturday, September 28, 2019,
9 AM to 3 PM

Simpson House, 2101 Belmont Ave,
Philadelphia, PA.

In this seminar, the keynote message, panel discussion and a workshop will focus on helping men and boys unlearn and heal from toxic masculinity (i.e., socialized attitudes and behaviors that contribute to intimate-partner abuse).*

Keynote: The Rev. Rickie Houston, a domestic violence specialist and trainer with the organization A CALL TO MEN. He has trained groups across the U.S., including religious groups and professional sports teams, and in West Africa, helping them to engage men in efforts to foster respect for, and end violence against, women. Houston, who trains men, women and boys, believes in a developmental, holistic approach in his ministry that includes the “interaction of spiritual and social consciousness.” He is the pastor of Pilgrim Rest Missionary Baptist Church in Wilmington, NC.

A CALL TO MEN educates men all over the world on healthy, respectful manhood. A CALL TO MEN is a violence prevention organization and respected leader on issues of manhood, male socialization and its intersection with violence, and preventing violence against all women and girls.

The half-day seminar will also feature a panel discussion with Houston, Chester County domestic violence prevention and response specialists, and the Rev. David Piltz, a campus minister, pastor and Eastern PA Conference Coordinator of Young People’s Ministries. Piltz is a Marriage and Family Therapist who once trained for and staffed a domestic violence response hotline.

Afternoon workshops

- Healing the Community of the Trauma of Domestic Violence
- Teaching Respect and Helping Men Prevent Domestic Violence
- When Love Hurts: The Dynamics of Domestic Violence

Who should attend this seminar?
All men and boys (and the women who love them).

The cost is $20 and includes lunch and resources. 0.5 CEUs offered by request.

For more information contact the Rev. Jacqueline Hines, committee chairwoman.

*In psychology, toxic masculinity refers to traditional cultural masculine norms that can be harmful to men, women and society overall; this concept of toxic masculinity is not intended to demonize men or male attributes, but rather to emphasize the harmful effects of conformity to certain traditional masculine ideal behaviors such as dominance, self-reliance, and competition.
