New Testament Lesson: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace. We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Old Testament Lesson: Genesis 32:22-31

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed."

Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

Rooted in Gratitude, Growing in Christ: We are celebrating our 130 anniversary as a church body. May our homes and hearts still be opened to the word of God through us.

All Saints Sunday November 6th 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. Services

One of the oldest traditions of the church is the remembrance of those who have died during the last year. All Saints' Day is celebrated annually on November 1st. For many years, this beloved tradition has been very important to our congregation. We remember beloved members of the church, special loved ones of our families, and those for whom we have per-

- formed funeral and memorial services. Our remembrance includes pictures, the tolling of the bell, and the lighting of the candles.
- You may be remembering a loved one this year. We want to give thanks to God for their life in our two services when we celebrate All Saints' Day on November 6th. By October 30th, please be sure the church office has the full name and a picture of your loved one, their date of birth and date of death. It is our privilege to remember those who moved onto the church triumphant, even as we hold the tenderness of loss.

Help Our Troop Help Others! Buy an Annie the Owl!

Boy Scout Troop 12 will be selling Annie the Owl. For a $20.00 donation, a plush owl will be purchased in your name and will be donated to a sick child. Our boys of Troop 12 will receive a percentage of the profit on all the sales. Once the sale is over the boys personally deliver the plush owls to children in local hospitals. If you want to purchase one for yourself, a child, grandchild, niece or nephew our boys will still get a profit and you will own an adorable plush owl. Last year we donated 100 plush animals to A.I DuPont! We want to beat our number from last year! Please support our Troop as we give to others. Sales are going on the whole month of October. You can also order one by emailing Lyaletchko@zoominternet.net or Calling Lisa at 610-932-4984

WGUMC's Annual Trunk or Treat Event! Sunday, October 30th from 3-5 P.M.

This eagerly awaited event is an awesome outreach to the children of our community. It's a fun, safe way for children to experience the joy of trick or treating. We line up cars in part of our parking lot, and children go trunk-to-trunk collecting candy. We'll also have games, crafts, refreshments, and a hay ride. Invite a friend or neighbor to join in on the fun!

We need lots of trunks this year! All you need to do is decorate the trunk of your car and hand out candy as the children come around. You can dress in costume if you like! You may decorate with any theme you like, as long as it has nothing scary; remember this is a fun and safe Christian event. There are tons of ideas on the internet!

We will post sign-up sheets in the lobby as we will need lots of volunteers to help out, and you can place candy donations in the bins. THIS WEEK: October 16 through October 23, 2016

Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, October 16~ Saturday, October 22

- Sunday: "Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." Genesis 32: 24-26. Jacob chose to not let go of God until he was blessed. Where are you finding blessings in the midst of struggle?
- Monday: "Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. Genesis 32: 29. Prayerfully meditate on the name of our God who blesses and redeems struggle.
- Tuesday: "So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." Genesis 32: 30. Encountering God intimately is eye opening and heart changing. Where have you seen God face to face and still preserved?
- Wednesday: "We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly" 1 Thessalonians 1:2. Giving thanks is not just for those moments you would preserve with pictures. Giving thanks in all circumstances is a muscle to be worked. Give thanks to God today, even when you might not preserve the moments with photographs.
- Thursday: "For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of people we proved to be among you for your sake." 1 Thessalonians 1:4-5. The presence of God is known in word and power. Give thanks to God for glimpses of God's presence in word and power.
- Friday: "And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit." 1 Thessalonians 1:6. Joy is not happiness. Joy is a deep and abiding knowledge of God's presence and faithfulness in all circumstances. Where have you found joy?
- Saturday: "For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead— Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming." 1 Thessalonians 1:9-10. Giving thanks to God changes our lives. We transform from dead to living, from dying to born again. Praise God for God's resurrecting power!
