Hymnal No. 399

Consecrating our Generosity

One: Creator of all, the earth is yours, the world and all who live in it.

All: You have entrusted us with gifts— time, talent, energy, money—and asked us to use them to build your kingdom. With thanks and praise we respond to your call.

One: We bring these gifts you have given, reflecting your generosity, living as your disciples.

All: We offer ourselves, our lives, our hopes and fears, our dollars and our hours. We commit ourselves to work for your world, to love and serve wherever you call.

One: May these cards reflect our commitments to You and your church.

All: May our hearts, minds, and souls continue to seek you through this step of faith, path of discipleship, reflection of generosity.

One: We ask your blessing on this, your church, as we seek to follow you with heart, mind, and soul.

All: Bless these gifts as we live into your image, we who are created to be generous. Bless also these gifts, our investment in your future, that they may multiply in faith, hope, and love. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson: 2 Corinthians 8:1-15

Encouragement to Be Generous

We want you to know, brothers and sisters, about the grace of God that has been granted to the churches of Macedonia; for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means, begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints— and this, not merely as we expected; they gave themselves first to the Lord and, by the will of God, to us, so that we might urge Titus that, as he had already made a beginning, so he should also complete this generous undertaking among you. Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between 14 your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written,

“The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.”

Gospel Lesson: Mark 12:38-44

Jesus Denounces the Scribes

As he taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

The Widow’s Offering

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, November 8 ~ Saturday, November 14

Sunday: “For during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part.” 2 Corinthians 8:2. Prayerfully consider how God offers opportunities for us to impact the lives of others, if we only look around.

Monday: “For, as I can testify, they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means, begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the saints” 2 Corinthians 8:3-4. Where is God calling you to beg for the privilege of sharing and serving?

Tuesday: “Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.” 2 Corinthians 8:7. Paul calls disciples to be excellent in generosity as in all things, because it reflects more fully the image of God. How will you be excellent in generosity?

Wednesday: “I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance.” 2 Corinthians 8:13-14. God always uses God’s people. Prayerfully consider where God is using you.

Thursday: “He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny.” Mark 12: 41-42. As Jesus cares about the way people treated one another with actions, Jesus cared about the way we treat one another with our money. What does the use of your money say about you?

Friday: “Then he called his disciples and said to them, ‘Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury.’” Mark 12:43. Giving is never one-size fits all. Our need to give differs with our need to serve. Ask God to show you what your need to give is and respond.

Saturday: “For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.” Mark 12:44. Contemplate what you give out of your poverty.
