Good and Gracious God, who gives abundantly, we give you thanks. May these gifts offer blessings to our community, both nearby and far-flung. Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Pastor Jim

Grace-filled God who whispers to us long before we hear you calling, we confess that on this day, sometimes our lives are filled with noise and we do not hear you. Other times, we have tuned you out intentionally. Forgive us, we pray. May we tune our lives to hear you and the voices of your children, who need to hear your good news, be fed, cared for, and loved. For you asked us for care for those who are hungry, who thirst, who are lonely, who are sick, who are imprisoned, and are in need of care. Let us treat each one with love, we pray.

New Testament Lesson: Acts 1:1-5

In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. “This,” he said, “is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”

Gospel Lesson: Mark 7:1-13

Now when the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him, they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them. (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they thoroughly wash their hands, thus observing the tradition of the elders; and they do not eat anything from the market unless they wash it; and there are also many other traditions that they observe, the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles.) So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, “Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?” He said to them, “Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written, ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.’ You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition.” Then he said to them, “You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition! For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and, ‘Whoever speaks evil of father or mother must surely die.’ But you say that if anyone tells father or mother, ‘Whatever support you might have had from me is Corban’ (that is, an offering to God)— then you no longer permit doing anything for a father or mother, thus making void the word of God through your tradition that you have handed on. And you do many things like this.”

OPEN Market

West Grove UMC 3rd Annual Open Market On Saturday, September 15 Call For Vendors

On Saturday, September 15, 2018, West Grove United Methodist Church will host its 3rd Annual Open Market. The Open Market will run from 9:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. for a day of shopping and food. Our goal this year is to host close to 100 vendors (artists, jewelers, homemade bath products, woodworkers, crafters, etc) as well as food trucks. We are accepting vendors and food trucks, if interested please contact the church: (610) 869-9334 or email office@westgroveumc.org.

Darlene Murphy, trustee and event coordinator for the market says, "I am quite excited and pleased by the turnout and interest from local vendors. We have an amazing community of artists and crafters that many folks may not know. Each new vendor that reaches out brings new and unique talents to contribute to a wonderful day."

This event hosted by the Trustees is a fundraiser to help offset costs of maintaining the facility and allowing us to be a host to our community. We have many groups that use our facility for meetings: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H Robotics, etc. and in addition we open our house to those in need. We serve as one of the home churches for Family Promises of Chester County, which feeds and houses families in need. Emergency food pantry, warming center in winter, and a Chester County back-up emergency shelter are all utilized through our church. This event is free to the public however, we will accept monetary donations.

Please join us for food, shopping, socializing, and become acquainted with the wonderful artists, crafters, etc. that call this area home. Your participation helps to guarantee that we can make this an annual event and increase community participation each year.

Meditations For Your Week

Sunday, September 2 ~ Saturday, September 8

Sunday: "In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen." Acts 1:1-2 The same author of Luke continues into Acts telling of the acts of the apostles. Where would the writer see you doing the good news of God in your life?

Monday: "After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over the course of forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God." Acts 1:3. Pray for those speaking about the kingdom of God. Sharing God's word can be exhilarating and draining. Pray.

Tuesday: "While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. 'This', he said, 'is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.'" Acts 1:4-5. Consider how the movement of the Spirit has seasons of waiting.

Wednesday: "Now when the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him, they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them." Mark 7:1-2. Consider the critical judgment that begins this scene. Where are you being called to open your heart even when you might begin with judgment?

Thursday: "Jesus said to them, 'Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.'" Mark 7:6. Pray for those who are quick to respond, there is often more to the story.

Friday: "Then he said to them, 'You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition!'" Mark 7:9. As you find yourself angry at others consider the root of the upset: is it tradition, emotion, do you feel compelled? Is there grace?

Saturday: "Then you no longer permit doing anything for a father or mother, thus making void the word of God through your tradition that you have handed on. And you do many things like this." Mark 7:12-13. Jesus did not reject tradition out of hand, nor did he accept every tradition because it was tradition. As we consider traditions, let us consider each one with open hands and hearts.
