December 2019

"Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary—of whom Jesus was born, who is called the Christ. So there were fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen generations from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen generations from the exile to Babylon to the Christ." Matthew 1: 16-17

Mulligan. Do-Over. Try Again. Second Chance.

Have you ever wanted to just climb under the table and hide after you did something or something happened to you?

Over 55% of people who do not come to church say that is why they do not come. They find churches to be judgmental. 55% of people in our area say that churches and church people are too judgmental. They would like to have a second chance at life. They would like to experiment and try it out.

Our God has a lot to say about this. God's grace goes before God. God's grace is prevenient - before we think about God, God has already thought about us in love.

The first 17 verses of Matthew many people skip over. They read right over all of the begats and "fathers of" until they get to when they read 'this is how the birth of Jesus happened.' Boy, are they missing out!

Now, I know the names might give you pause in pronunciation. I know it might seem like genealogy, when you can barely keep straight your own family. But I want to tell you, the first seventeen verses of Matthew are a study in second (and third) chances. God is always giving people lots of opportunities to be a part of the family of God. This family tree is full of those who could have left out.

When you are studying the first chapter in the book of Matthew, you get a glimpse into characters like Abraham and Issac, David, and Solomon. You also have the opportunity to reflect on Bathsheba, whose husband was murdered, and Ruth, a migrant who cared for her mother in law, Rahab, a cunning businesswoman who cared for her family and Tamar, clever woman who taught her father-in-law to fulfill his obligations. These characters are integral parts of the salvific history of Jesus Christ.

Good news isn't good news, unless it is good news for everyone! And the birth of Jesus is good news for absolutely everyone! Jesus was born so that everyone could know God and God's way!

Some people have felt excluded by the church for their own actions. Others have not felt connected to church because of church actions. Be a part of welcoming your brothers and sisters back home to God in relationship as well as to church.

This Advent and Christmas, who can you share that we are a church of second and third chances? We offer to people as many chances as God gives. We invite our brothers and sisters to come home to God. We encourage them to find themselves at home in Jesus the Christ.

Join us on December 5th as we hand out our hot cocoa and lead caroling at the West Grove town center at the Christmas Tree lighting. We are delighted to have received a United Methodist Communications grant to assist us in this effort. We are utilizing the grant funds in the UnWrap Christmas effort. Help us invite our community to come home to West Grove UMC for Christmas.

Let the light of Christ's love shine through you to invite others back home.

In God's Love, Pastor Monica

Pastor's Desk

This is a year of rest for our Live Nativity.

Please prayerfully consider how you might be called to reimagine our Live Nativity for next year.

After the Annunciation

by Madeline L'Engle

This is the irrational season when love blooms bright and wild.

Had Mary been filled with reason there'd have been no room for the child.

Ever wonder why we set up nativities? In its present form, the custom of displaying figures depicting the birth of Jesus Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas crèche or manger for Christmas Eve of 1223.

Here is a prayer as you set up your nativity:

God of every nation and people, from the very beginning of creation you have made manifest your love:
when our need for a Savior was great you sent your Son to be born of Mary.
To our lives he brings joy and peace, justice, mercy, and love.

Lord, bless all who look upon this anger; may it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus, and raise our thoughts to him, who is God-with-us and Savior of all, and who lives and reigns forever and ever, Amen.

Prayer for Advent

by Steve Garnaas-Holmes

Like Mary, who says Yes to your promise, and farmers in hope for their crops, we welcome your good news in peace: your grace that will upend our world, we receive with patience and hope.
Your justice that brings down the mighty, that feeds the hungry and poor, we welcome, and ask for your courage. In peace, we say Yes to your peace. In peace, we welcome the miracle: may your life unfold within us in light. The desert will blossom, the blind will see, and we will return from our exile to be one with each other again. Like Mary, who says Yes to your promise, in peace, we say Yes to your peace. Amen.

Prepare A Blessing for Advent

Strange how one word will so hollow you out.
But this word has been in the wilderness for months.
Years.

This word is what remained after everything else was worn away
by sand and stone.
It is what withstood
the glaring of sun by day, the weeping loneliness of the moon at night.

Now it comes to you racing out of the wild, eyes blazing

and waving its arms, its voice ragged with desert but piercing and loud as it speaks itself
again and again:

Prepare, prepare.

It may feel like
the word is leveling you, emptying you

as it asks you to give up what you have known.

It is impolite
and hardly tame, but when it falls upon your lips
you will wonder at the sweetness,

like honey
that finds its way into the hunger
you had not known was there.

BLUE CHRISTMAS

Friday, December 20th

6:30 p.m.

As we prepare for Christmas, some of us might not feel the joy of the season. Perhaps, this is a season of loss and pain – loss of loved one, loss of job, loss of family, divorce, separation, or physical, emotional, spiritual pain. Perhaps, the news that fills our media weighs heavily on your shoulders.

Anyone who feels that the holly and jolly of the season is not where they find their hearts, is welcome to join us for our Blue Christmas service.

The service welcomes all with trust and understanding in what can be a very painful time of the year. The service includes the lighting of candles, meditative music, prayers, comforting scriptures, and the giving of prayer shawls.

Join us as we offer a quiet and reflective service of light in the midst of darkness.

CMO PRESCHOOL

CMO and Preschool News for December

December is such a fun month for our preschool children. They will be busy preparing for Christmas. The joy and excitement in their faces is priceless during this time of year as they learn about this special day. The children will be learning about Jesus and his birth, making special presents for their parents, and enjoying hearing so many Christmas stories. Our Christmas Celebration will help us get even more into the Christmas spirit. At the celebration, the children enjoy hearing the story of Christmas told by Pastor Monica and Miss Melanie, sing Christmas songs for their parents, and we are hopeful that we will have a message from a special someone!

We are already planning for next school year. We will host an Open House at the end of January and our registration for the 2020-2021 school year will be the beginning of February. We wish you all a Merry Christmas!

Chapel time is in full swing and we have read lots of stories about being thankful! The kids love to guess what is going to happen in our stories, but their favorite thing to do is sing! This month we clapped our hands and stomped our feet when we felt thankful and there was a lot of thankfulness in the room!

NURSERY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Thank you to all who have spent time on Sunday mornings volunteering in the nursery! We continue to be blessed with wonderful little ones to spend time with on Sundays and watch them grow! We are in need of additional volunteers, especially during the 8:30 am service. If you are interested in helping in the nursery (about once a month), please contact Amy Castaldi at ahass17@hotmail.com or 610-468-4321.

Retired Active People

Retired Active People (R.A.P.)

December 13
12:00-3:00 PM

In November, the Stuhrkes hosted our gathering. Thank you Dick and Caryl. We also thank Pastor Jim and Betty Mundell for sharing beautiful pictures from their trip around the world.

RAP's next gathering is Friday, December 13, 2019 at noon. Come and dine with us as we share a potluck lunch and celebrate the Christmas season. Paulette Bryan and Janet Gregg will be our hosts.

We are delighted, once again, to share the musical talents of the Providence Brass Quintet plus One, featuring members Eric Perkins, Debbie Schneider and Dick Stuhrke on Trumpet, Rob Hazel on the French Horn, Jake Schneider on Trombone and Frank Metzger on the Tuba. We are so excited to have them entertain us with a selection of sacred and secular Christmas pieces and a time to sing-a-long.

Psalm 98:4-6 says, "Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises! Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre, with the lyre and the sound of melody! With trumpets and the sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the LORD!" (ESV)

If you are interested in helping with the setup and/or cleanup, please let Paulette or Janet know that you are willing to help. Don't forget your covered dish, invite a friend or two, and come to enjoy an afternoon of fun, food and fellowship with us. Everyone is welcome!

Luke 2:11-13, "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God..." (ESV)

Come, and make a joyful noise with us as we celebrate the Birthday of our King!

J.U.L.I.E.T.

Save the Date!

The Juliets, a group of women who just like eating together, will meet at the Creekside Diner, 717 W. Baltimore Pike, Kennett Square on Saturday, December 14th at 9:00 a.m. They meet monthly on the 2nd Saturday and enjoy a time of good food and fellowship and laughter! Join us!

STEWARDSHIP

WEST GROVE UMC FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Our church financial condition has been stable through the ten months ended October 31, 2019; although, for the month of October, we incurred a cash shortfall. In October, we received income of $23,431 and incurred $37,980 of expenses resulting in an excess of expenses over cash received in the amount of $14,549. This was primarily due to a lower four week offering, along with the CMO payroll reimbursement which was deposited in November.

For the year-to-date ten month period ended October 31, 2019, we received total income of $326,229 and incurred total expenses of $318,484 resulting in an excess of cash received over expenses in the amount of $7,745. Our 2019 apportionments were $27,004 in arrears as of October 31. At our recent Finance Meeting, we reviewed our overall financial condition and agreed to pay $13,484 (three months apportionments) toward this arrearage. As a result, we will be paid up through July. We have made significant progress in meeting our apportionments obligation and we will meet again in December to determine how much additional we can pay by year end.

Seeking and Following God's Plan: Our Future with Hope

November 10th, "To be regular in our giving is to establish a pattern of giving and to follow that pattern. In 1:Corinthians 16:2, Paul described regular as "On the first day of every week, each of you is to put aside and save whatever extra you earn, so that collections need not be taken when I come." For Paul, this was weekly. In our day, to be regular in giving means that whenever you receive income, and however you receive income, you give according to your predetermined plan." If you have not had a chance to share your commitment card with the church, please send it in. Your commitment card is a benefit to you in your practice of giving and the church in our planning. The Finance and Administrative Council will be determining a budgeting plan for 2020 in December.

Our Strategic Planning Team has been meeting since this summer. This team came together out of your request for a desire to hear where we are headed as a church, understand what our needs are, and your responses to the survey from Kirby-Smith Associates. We thank you for your wisdom. The strategic plan is slated to be shared with the congregation at the beginning of January. Please look for details.

Our opportunity list gives you a chance to give beyond your regular tithe. Consider how you might impact our congregation and community.

WORLD AIDS DAY Sunday, December 1, 2019

Communities make the difference!

THE CHURCH CAN ENGAGE IN MANY WAYS

THE AIDS PANDEMIC IS NOT YET OVER

People of every age group have been affected by HIV and AIDS, but in many places, the pandemic is developing a young person's face.

The Abundant Health Initiative supports small projects reaching young people in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Ivory Coast, Malawi, Sierra Leone, the Philippines, Zambia, Zimbabwe, and the United States. "Stigma keeps many of us from being tested and treated. ... Rejection keeps us hidden. ... To lose our community is to lose our life."

STOP STIGMA! On one World AIDS Day, staff at Kissy United Methodist Hospital joined a march through Sierra Leone's capital to promote awareness about the rising rates of HIV infection, especially among young people. The turnout was high, and participants found testing points along the way. The mayor encouraged people to embrace those living with HIV. "Stigma must stop," he said. "When stigma is reduced, there will surely be a reduction of HIV transmission."

Powell to retire as DCM, with Taylor-Storm as successor

Bishop Peggy Johnson announced the retirement of the Rev. Anita Powell as Eastern PA Conference Director of Connectional Ministries (DCM) and the appointment of the Rev. Dawn Taylor-Storm as her successor, effective July 1, 2020. Taylor-Storm is currently Superintendent of the South District and was recently Dean of the Cabinet.

Bishop Johnson praised Powell’s service and accomplishments as DCM the past two years. She was previously Superintendent of the former Central District in 2011-2017, after planting Church of the Open Door as a new church start in Kennett Square in 2001.

“Dr. Powell has built successful relationships across this annual conference, our jurisdiction and the general church during her tenure,” she said. “She has encouraged cooperation and communication among the ministries under her charge and demonstrated humility coupled with mindful problem-solving in all her work. We wish her and her dear husband, Marvin, the very best.”

“God has truly blessed me with the privilege of serving the church and conference as a pastor, district superintendent and Director of Connectional Ministries,” said Powell. “Being in ministry with clergy, congregations, Conference staff, and committees has been a highlight in my life, stretching and challenging me, while also bringing me much meaning and joy. I will especially remember the relationships I have formed, and the many situations which have informed and formed me. To all of you, I am deeply grateful.”

Taylor-Storm became Superintendent of the former Southeast District in 2014, after serving as pastor of St. Matthew’s UMC of Valley Forge. She previously served White Haven UMC. Her introduction to ministry was as a Global Ministries Mission Intern serving at a community center in San Marcos, Texas.

“Rev. Taylor-Storm has demonstrated the power of the connection through her work in the Democratic Republic of Congo, where the South District raised funds to build and develop a pediatric clinic, an eye clinic, and a life skills program,” wrote Bishop Johnson in her announcement. “She looks forward to bringing a missional focus to the work of the DCM and seeks to encourage churches to join together in rebuilding communities, making disciples and offering the hope of the Gospel.”

“I have seen firsthand the reason why the connectional church matters and what the body of Christ is capable of when we serve in mission together,” Taylor-Storm wrote in an acknowledgment letter to her district, as she recalled the ministry strides made during her five-year tenure. “Together, we have worked to seek God’s vision for abundant life for all people, from here on the South District, to the Democratic Republic of Congo.”

Bishop Johnson invites recommendations of eligible clergy to consider for the position of Superintendent of the South District, effective July 1, 2020. Suggestions should be emailed only to newdsepa@gmail.com.

“Tear Down This Wall”

A Pastoral Letter By Bishop Peggy Johnson

This week is the 30th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall in Germany. This wall was erected after the second World War and it divided East and West Berlin.

During The United Methodist Church's Council of Bishops fall meeting our bishops from Germany testified about the jubilation and amazement felt when the wall came down. People were able to move about freely from one side to the other. Not a single shot was fired.

Humanity is well-acquainted with walls, not only physical walls but the walls of difference that are found in hearts and minds. We are quick to erect attitudinal walls around our differences and our beliefs.

Walls create alienation, separation, fear, distrust and violence. Such a wall stops ministry dead in its tracks, and it is never the will of God. God sent Jesus to deal with walls. Ephesians 2:14 says "For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility."

A wall of separation in the UMC

United Methodists are well-acquainted with a wall of separation about the marriage and ordination of members of the LGBTQIA+ community. Our Book of Discipline states that all people are of sacred worth, but it includes a wall concerning the practice of homosexuality being "contrary to Christian teaching."

At the 2019 General Conference the traditional prohibition against the practice of homosexuality was maintained, same gender marriages continued to be banned, and it was expanded to include more enforcement and a broader scope of what defines homosexuality. There were also more additions to the process of filing complaints against people who engage in practices found in the list of "chargeable offenses." Being a self-avowed and practicing homosexual and performing a same-gender wedding are on that list. The added measures will be effective on January 1, 2020.

I write this pastoral letter to the flock of God in the Eastern Pennsylvania and the Peninsula-Delaware conferences, my beloved Philadelphia Area. It is a passionate plea that you do not engage in filing complaints around the issue of homosexuality. It simply exacerbates the painful, formidable wall that stands between people of good will who have different hearts.

Homosexuality complaints and trials do harm

Complaints and trials do an enormous amount of harm to everyone. Our baptism vows call us to "resist evil, injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves." Nothing good can come from this battering. We can never legislate a heart.

As your bishop I am bound to receive and process complaints, but I do not believe it is helpful to engage in church trials. So, I will not refer any such complaints for a church trial. I say this not out of a sense of rebellion against the rules in our Book of Discipline but out of my pastor's heart that wishes to defend the people of our conferences against this destructive, divisive and expensive process.

The complaint paragraphs in the UM Book of Discipline call for a resolution that focuses on repairing any harm to people and communities and that can bring healing to all parties. Instead of filing a complaint, I suggest that those who have experienced harm begin with a conversation.

Engage people with whom you disagree. Hear their hearts and engage in humble inquiry about a person's life story and perspective. Explain where the harm is and craft a peace plan. And most importantly, pray with each other!

Power of prayer to tear down walls, build a just peace

When I visited Germany last year and toured the former site of the Berlin Wall, our guide said that the Communist government was "no match for prayer and our candlelight vigils." The power of the risen Lord is available for us to tear down our walls, but we need to have the humble will to work at it and pray for it.

Is this not what Paul meant in Romans 12:18 when he said, "As far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all"? I humbly suggest that you engage in these steps before sending a complaint to my office.

We are living in a "liminal" (transitional) time as we prepare for the May 5-15, 2020, General Conference. At that conference delegates will consider how we as a denomination can maximize our witness and craft a form of unity that brings a new wind of hope for all people.

Catch sight of God's vision of a church that is busy making disciples of Jesus Christ, a church that is engaging in ministry and mission, a church striving for equality and equity for all people.

We can only get there as we employ with grace all of the giftedness of the Body of Christ, not just one "side" or the other. Dividing our church would cut off some of our needed giftedness. We can only accomplish this vibrant ministry as we take down the walls in our hearts and "do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with our God." (Micah 6:8)

I close this letter with two verses of a hymn that was sung in Germany during the dismantling of the Berlin Wall. It spread like wildfire around the churches, both East and West, as people yearned for freedom and unity. May it be a song in all of our hearts as well:

Have faith in God's new pathways, walk on in this new day.

God hopes you'll be a blessing for all upon the way.

The one who in the days gone by breathed life in us and hope,

Will lead us to the place where God wants and needs us most.

Have faith in God who shows us new paths that lead to life.

It's God who comes to meet us, the future is in God's hand.

Who follows God is full of hope, now and forevermore.

The door for us is open, the land is bright and free.

*"Tear down this wall" was the appeal U.S. President Ronald Reagan made in his Berlin Wall speech in West Berlin, Germany, on June 12, 1987.

Humbly submitted, Bishop Peggy A. Johnson
